

Good Corporate Governance

Through the year 2018, the Board of Directors has perpetuated the intentions to enhance the Good Corporate Governance (“CG”) in accordance with the international standards. The Board of Directors therefore applied the CG Self-Assessment for developing the Company’s governance system under the CG established by The Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET). The purposes of this are for the most efficiency of management system including priority given to the shareholders’ rights, equal treatment to shareholders, stakeholders’ roles, data disclosure and transparency, and responsibilities of the Board of Directors. All those are for protecting the shareholders’ interest.

In this connection, the Board of Directors has acknowledged the Corporate Governance Code for Listed Companies 2017 (“CG Code”) and was well awarded of the governing body to create value for sustainable business including reviewing, policy assessing and the implementation in relation to the Company’s corporate governance and each CG Code. The Board of Directors has assigned the Corporate Governance Committee or Company secretary to amend CG policy and Ethics of the Company as well as the directions in compliance with CG Code and adaptable to the rapid change of CG development.

In 2018, the Company’s CG practices were divided into 5 parts, as follows:

Part 1 Shareholders’ Rights

1.1 CG on Shareholders’ Right Protection Policy

The Company’s Board of Directors formulates the shareholders’ right protection policy in writing in 2006. The policy emphasizes on allowing shareholders to have equal rights to have access to the Company’s operational performance; and to participate in important decisions making, as well as protecting, promoting, encouraging but not to infringe shareholders’ rights. The policies are as follows:

Policy on shareholders’ right protection

1. The Board of Directors is responsible for protecting and respecting basic rights of the Company’s shareholders, such as right to purchase, sell or transfer shares, right to the Company’s profit sharing; right to obtain sufficient information about the Company’s operation, right to attend the shareholders’ meeting to appoint or terminate directors and independent auditors, allocate dividend payment, formulate or amend the provisions or Memorandum of Association, approve capital increase or decrease, and special items, etc.
2. The Board of Directors has duty to promote and support shareholders to exercise their rights in various areas at the Annual General Shareholders’ Meeting, i.e. the right to propose meeting agenda in advance, the right to nominate persons as directors, the right to submit questions to the Company prior to the annual shareholders’ meeting and the right to openly express opinions and ask questions at the shareholders’ meeting, etc.
3. The Board of Directors shall not take any action which may violate or limit, or infringe the shareholders’ right to study the Company’s information that shall be disclosed according to the related requirements, and the right to attend shareholders’ meeting; for example, not to distribute significant information document unexpectedly added, not to add agenda or amend the important data without advance notice to shareholders.

4. The Board of Directors has responsibility to facilitate the applying of the shareholders' rights such as giving the significant information, inviting the shareholders to visit factory, etc.

1.2 Allowing shareholders to study information prior to the shareholders' meeting

The Board of Directors and the Management have implemented the policy relating to shareholders' right that covers more the rights than those required by law, especially the right to general and significant information. At the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders for the year 2018, the Company provided the shareholders with sufficient opportunity to study the information to the meeting date via the Company's website. Such information was also published in both Thai and English similar to the hard copy the Company submitted to shareholders.

1.3 Practice for shareholders before the shareholders' meeting, at the shareholders' meeting, and after the shareholders' meeting

To deliver to the documents of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders (“Meeting”), the Company assigned the Thailand Securities Depository Company Limited (TSD), which is the Company's share registrar, to distribute the invitation to the Meeting to all shareholders 14 days prior to the Meeting date in order to provide shareholders with sufficient time to study the information. Such delivery period of meeting documents was more than that specified by the applicable laws.

At the Meeting, the Company facilitated shareholders to exercise their rights to attend the meeting by implementing a barcode system for registration and vote counting, as well as providing the revenue stamps for proxy authorization. The label of registered shareholder was provided for access convenience while meeting, without time loss to recheck their documents.

In addition, at the Meeting, for the purpose of transparency and good corporate governance imposed by Securities and Exchange Commission Thailand (SEC), the Company has invited shareholders to witness the vote-counting. There were no shareholders volunteered, but there was Mr. Supapong Tun-ngern, independent Legal Advisor, and Ms. Yaowarote Klinboon, legal advisor from Hunton Andrews Kurth (Thailand) Limited to witness the vote-counting.

Furthermore, the Company has informed the Meeting the number and ratio of attending shareholders either by themselves or by appointment of proxies, the procedures of vote-casting, vote-counting, including notification of voting result.

After the Meeting of the Shareholders for the year, the Company compiled the document, including agenda, meeting resolutions, voting results, questions and shareholders' opinion expressed at the meeting, so as to provide “The minutes of Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders for the year 2018” for publishing on the Company's website in compliance with the regulations of SEC and SET.

The Company provided upon requested the video of meeting atmosphere in soft file for publishing on the Company's website for shareholders who could not attend the meeting, apart from the minutes publicized in the channel of SET and the Company's website.

1.4 Preventing limitation of shareholders' rights to general information and information technology

Through publishing all information on the Company's website prior to the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders, the Company's Board of Directors supported and not to infringe the shareholders' rights exercise while the Company did not distribute additional document containing significant information during the meeting, or add or change meeting agenda or amend significant information without advance notice. There has been no complaint from shareholders on this case.

1.5 Facilitating shareholders to exercise rights

The Company facilitated the shareholders and shareholders' proxy to register attending the meeting by implementing a barcode system for registration and vote counting as well as distributing voting ballots to the shareholders before meeting.

The Company clearly stated shareholders' meeting rules and process in the meeting invitation. The moderator of the meeting also informed the attending shareholders of the rule and voting process at the meeting. The shareholders' meeting minutes also included a record that the meeting was informed of the rules and voting process.

Moreover, the Company invited its shareholders to exercise their right to visit its factory. Regularly, the Company updates current information and data published on its website.

1.6 Providing time and opportunity for shareholders to express their opinions

The Chairman of the Board of Directors asked the meeting at the end of each agenda whether the shareholders ask questions related to the meeting agenda or related to the Company, whereby they could openly express their opinion. Any questions related to the meeting agenda or the Company together with shareholders' opinion as well as the answers or clarification made by the Board of Directors or the Company's management, were entirely recorded in the minutes.

The Company provided recording sound of the shareholders' meeting, and disclosed the significant matters arising during the meeting in the meeting minutes for reference in the future and enables shareholders who could not attend the meeting to follow up the meeting particulars.

1.7 Directors to attend the shareholders' meeting

With fully respect of shareholders' right, the attendance of all 10 Directors, including Chief Executive Officer, and Chief Financial Officer, comprised 11 members attended the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders for the year 2018.

Part 2 Equitable treatment towards shareholders

2.1 Policy on facilitating the minor shareholders

The Board of Directors respected the equitable treatment to shareholders, and therefore the facilitation policy for minor shareholders was set as follows:

Policy on facilitating the minor shareholders

1. The Board of Directors has the duties to respect the shareholders' rights and treat them equally.

2. The Board of Directors has the duties to encourage and support the shareholders to exercise their rights in any respects for the annual general meeting of shareholders such as proposing an issue in the agenda in advance, nominating a person to be selectively director in advance, and submitting questions prior to the meeting, etc.
3. The Board of Directors has the duties to assist the shareholders in any respects such as supporting the shareholders to study information before making decision. For the voting, the Company supports the shareholders to authorize proxies by offering alternatives at least 1 independent director for the shareholders to authorize as their proxies.

2.2 Criteria to provide the minor shareholders the opportunity to propose in advance an issue in the agenda of the shareholders' meeting

The Company allowed and assisted any shareholders to propose in advance an issue in the meeting agenda by providing the consideration criteria published via the data system of SET and the Company's website 3 months prior to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for the year 2018. The Board of Directors' Secretary was assigned to compile the meeting agenda and submitted to the independent directors for consideration. Basically, if the independent directors viewed such issue as proper, they shall propose to the Board of Directors. In 2018, none of shareholders proposed in advance any issue in the agenda. The criteria of proposing the agenda of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for the year 2018 were the followings:

1. The qualifications of shareholders entitled to propose issue for the annual general meeting of shareholders agenda shall be the shareholder holding not exceeding 0.5% of the total voting shares of the Company, maybe a sole shareholder or combined shareholders, holding continuously such shares not less than 12 months from the holding date to the proposal date.
2. An issue shall be proposed through the "Agenda Proposal Form for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for the year 2018" with related complete and entire documents, to be submitted to the Company.
3. For an efficient AGM, the Company reserves its right not to include the following matters as the meeting agenda:
 - 1) Matters proposed by shareholders who are not qualified, as specified in criteria No. 1 or do not follow the procedures set forth by the Company in the criteria for shareholders to propose the Agenda of AGM.
 - 2) Matters as stipulated by laws for consideration at AGM, which have been pursued regularly by the Company.
 - 3) Matters relating to a normal course of business of the Company and matters already undertaken by the Company.
 - 4) Matters under the Company's management authority except ones causing material impacts on shareholders in general.
 - 5) Matters that shareholders already proposed in AGM within the past 12 months, and those under support by less than 10% of total voting shares, given that the factual events have not changed significantly.
 - 6) Matters unlikely to benefit the Company and matters previously submitted for consideration by other shareholders.
 - 7) Matters that violate applicable laws, rules, regulations of the government agencies or regulatory or involved agencies, or actions not in compliance with the objectives, Articles of Association and Statement of Business Conducts of the Company.
 - 8) Matters that are beyond the authority of the Company.

4. The Company's independent directors considered and screened the issues proposed by shareholders prior to submit to the Board of Directors. The Company would notify the consideration result after the meeting of the Board of Directors. The approved issues would be included in the agenda attached to the invitation to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for the year 2018.

2.3 Consider not to add an issue in the shareholders' meeting agenda

The Board of Directors complied with the policy on monitoring the shareholders' rights. In shareholder meeting, the Board of Directors strictly conducted the meeting in line with the agenda and did not distribute any additional documents suddenly, or add any issue in the agenda or change any significant information without advance notice.

2.4 Criteria to provide the minor shareholders to nominate person for director position

The Company allowed and assisted any shareholders to nominate in advance qualified person for director position by providing the consideration criteria published via the data system of SET and the Company's website 3 months prior to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for the year 2018. The Board of Directors' Secretary was assigned to compile the accompanied information of the nominee's qualifications as well as his/her consent, and then submitted to the Nomination Committee to consider the qualifications of person nominated by the minor shareholders in accordance with the Company's nomination procedure. Generally, if the Nomination Committee viewed such person nominated as proper, it shall propose to the Board of Directors to consider and propose to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. In 2018, none of shareholders made nomination. The Criteria for the Nomination of Candidate for Directorship in the Annual General Meeting (AGM) Agenda are as follows:

1. Qualification of shareholder who has the right to nominate a qualified person as a candidate for the Company's directorship election must be the Company's shareholder holding continuously minimum of five percent of the total shares issued by the Company by one shareholder or several shareholders combined and shareholders must have held those shares continuously for at least 12 months by the date the shareholder nominates a qualified candidate.
2. Nomination of a qualified person as candidate for directorship, Shareholder fully qualified as in criteria No.1 can fill out the following forms:
 - 1) Form Nominated Qualified Candidate for Directorship in AGM 2018
 - 2) Form Personal Data on Qualified Candidate for Directorship in AGM 2018

3. Candidate must have the qualifications in compliance with related laws and regulations as follows: Securities and Stock Exchange Commission, Thailand, The Stock Exchange of Thailand, The Public Company Limited Act B.E. 2535 and the Company's Memorandum of Association.
4. The above nominated candidate, together with complete supplementary documents, as required shall be scrutinized by the Nomination Committee according to the Nomination Process of the Company, before further submission to the Board of Directors for consideration. The Company will notify the Board of Director's (BOD) resolution after the BOD Meeting.

2.5 Encouraging the shareholders to use the Proxy Form

The Board of Directors encouraged the shareholders to use the Proxy Form in voting APPROVE, DISAPPROVE, ABSTAIN by providing the Proxy Form B. Besides, the Company provided the shareholders with the Proxy Form A (general Proxy Form) and the Proxy Form C (only for custodian) published on the website 14 days prior to the meeting date for download.

2.6 Encouraging the shareholders to vote

The Board of Directors provided convenience for shareholders who could not attend the meeting but wish to exercise their voting rights by allowing them to assign proxy. The Company arranged 2 independent directors to attend the meeting and vote on behalf of the shareholders. An independent director is Mr. Chainarong Monthienvichienchai (Chairman of the Board of Directors and independent director) and Assoc. Prof. Niputh Jitprasonk (Chairman of the Audit Committee and independent director). Shareholders can appoint one of the two independent directors as their proxy.

2.7 Giving the shareholders opportunity to exercise right to appoint individual director

The Board of Directors encouraged the shareholders to use their voting rights by providing and distributing voting ballots at the registration before meeting. Voting ballots were provided for each issue of the agenda, such as dividend payment approval, independent auditor remuneration, and individual director appointment. The vote counting was recorded in the minutes of each meeting for transparency and reference in case of objection later.

2.8 Measures to prevent directors, executives, and employees from using the internal information for own benefits

The Board of Directors stipulated the measures to prevent the directors, executives, and employees from using the internal information for their or others' benefits in the Code of Conduct covering the use of internal information for stock trading, the conflict of interest, and the confidentiality of information. The measures were notified through the business ethics, training, and the Company's website. Besides, the secretary of the Board of Directors was assigned to notify the rules in data disclosure and monitor that the Board of Directors and executives report their asset possession including the disclosure of the conflict of interest and connected transaction between directors and executives.

Part 3 Roles of stakeholders

3.1 Good Corporate Governance policy related to stakeholders

The Company respected and gave priority to all groups stakeholders' rights, not only particular to the applicable laws. In the past year, the Company newly considered indicating the stakeholders and established the additional policy and measure on monitoring the stakeholders in accordance with the Good Corporate Governance (CG) and CSR policy simultaneously adhered to conduct. The stakeholders of the Company shall be divided in 10 groups, as follows:

Part 4 Information disclosure and transparency

4.1 Results of the execution of good corporate governance policy

Last year, the Company accurately, adequately, timely and transparently disclosed the financial and non-financial information required by the SEC and SET through SET's online system and the Company's website. The Company has never been punished by the SEC or SET for not disclosing the information as required. Also, the Company regularly appraises the efficiency of information disclosure process and strictly follows the regulations.

Moreover, the Company published and regularly updated all significant information submitted to the SET and other current information on its website as well as provided all shareholders and stakeholders with such information both in Thai and English so as for equal access to the information.

4.2 Remuneration for the directors and the management

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee formulated the policy on remuneration for directors, Chief Executive Officer and top executives as follows;

Policy on remuneration for directors, Chief Executive Officer and top executives

1. Remuneration of the Company's directors, Chief Executive Officer and top executives shall be set in accordance with their duty, scope of responsibility, fairness and attractiveness, which should be compared to those for directors in other listed companies in the same industry and similar size, including the Company's performance, business surroundings, and overall economic conditions.
2. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall be responsible for initial consideration and propose for the approval of the Board of Directors and the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders the maximum remuneration of the year, position remuneration and meeting allowance.
3. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall comply with the resolution of the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders on the remuneration budget and details which are also disclosed in the annual report. The remuneration that the directors received from positions in other companies, such as consultancy fee, and directorship in the Company's subsidiaries shall also be disclosed.
4. Any director who currently holds management position in the Company and receives the remuneration in the forms of monthly salary will not be entitled to receive the remuneration.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee proposed to the Board of Directors and the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders for the year 2018 to approve the remunerations for the non-executive and non-employee directors as shown in Remuneration for Directors and the Management Chapter. Any director being the subsidiary's director shall not be entitled to take any remuneration from such subsidiary.

4.5 Relationship with investors

The Company has a policy on significant information, including general information, to be disclosed properly, completely, reliably, sufficiently, timely, and transparently, including general information that may affect the Company's share price, assigning the Company's representative to communicate with the institute and individual investors as well as analysts and concerned government agencies. The Company's website (www.gjsteel.co.th) is used as a channel to distribute all information, such as the information regarding the Company, business, financial information, news that may affect investment decision, reports submitted to the SET, the Company's activities, and shareholders' meeting details, in order to enable shareholders to keep updated of the Company's movement and information.

Part 5 The Board of Directors' Responsibilities

5.1 Policy on Good Corporate Governance

The Company's Board of Directors is committed to directing the business in compliance with the good corporate governance which is beneficial and important to promote efficiency and transparency of the Company's operation, helping increase competitive advantages, and add long-term value to the shareholders. The Board of Directors and the Management have formulated good corporate governance practice and made them the Company's policy in writing. The Board of Directors approved the policy the essences of which are as follows:

1. Respecting shareholders' right including allowing them to propose agenda in advance for the shareholders' meeting, and nominating in advance persons to be elected as directors, etc., the Company shall not take any action which may infringe or limit the rights of shareholders.
2. Equitably and fairly treating all shareholders, investors, stakeholders and related parties.
3. Accurately, adequately, equitably, and timely disclosing information to shareholders, investors, stakeholders and related parties through appropriate channels, including website, to enable shareholders and related parties to have easy access to the information.
4. Performing its duties and responsibility in supervising and directing the operations of the Company with integrity, ethics and prudence to achieve the Company's goal and for the best benefits of the Company and its shareholders, as well as preventing conflict of interest.
5. Managing the Company with transparency under sufficient internal control and audit system.
6. Controlling and managing risks at the appropriate level.
7. Operating the Company with integrity and in compliance with laws and business ethics.

5.2 Structure of the Board of Directors

The Company managed the Board of Directors through the system "Check and Balance" and the policy of "Board Diversity". The Board of Directors comprises 11 members that have different qualifications, skills, experience and specialization being benefit to the Company, and ability to contribute their time and efforts to perform a duty to reinforce the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall select and appoint the committees in order to share its works for specific issues, as specified in the annual report under Management Structure.

The Board of Directors gives priority to transparency and therefore stipulated that the Board of Directors Chairman is an independent director and shall not be the same person as the Chief Executive Officer or President. The Board of Directors approved the definition of independent directors which is stricter than that required by SEC, for example, an independent director shall hold the shares not exceeding 0.5% in the Company.

The Board of Directors stipulated a formal and transparent process of director nomination which is free from influence from shareholders who have controlling authority. The Nomination Committee shall nominate directors by considering education, capability, experience, etc. in accordance with the scope of responsibilities of the Board of Directors or committees. The list of nominees will be proposed to the Board of Directors for consideration and appointment.

The Board of Directors disclosed the list of the directors and committee members in terms of names, positions, age, education, shareholdings, work experience and relationship with the Company's executives in various channels, including the annual report and the Company's website. There is no director holding directorships more than 5 listed companies. At a meeting of the Board of Directors, there must not be less than one half of the total number of directors present to form a quorum. In addition, the meeting schedule for year was provided to directors in advance annually in order for the directors' attendance availability.

5.3 Leadership and vision

The Board of Directors has strong leadership, vision and independence in making decision for the best benefit of the Company and its shareholders. Roles and responsibilities of the Board of Directors and the Management are clearly separated, i.e. the Management is responsible for compiling necessary information for the Board of Directors' consideration.

With a goal to ensure stable business with long-term sustainability and success, the Board of Director, in cooperation with the Management in reviewing and ensuring that vision and mission best address the changing environment, the business goals, business plan and budget are prepared by taking into consideration the maximum added value and long-term stability of the Company and its shareholders. The Board of Directors also directs the business and ensures that the business operation is efficiently executed by the Management.

The Board of Directors encourages good corporate governance within the organization and formulates good corporate governance practice, code of ethics, measures and approval procedure of connected transactions between the Company and related parties or persons who may have conflict of interest, as well as clearly separates the authority of shareholders from that of the Board of Directors, also that between the Board of Directors and the executives and other committees, in order to balance the power, and each other shall be independently examined.

5.4 Conflict of interest

The Board of Directors shall consider connected transactions that may cause conflict of interest between shareholders, directors and the Management, with best prudence, integrity, reasonableness and independence within good business ethic framework. It also discloses complete information for the best benefit of the Company. The Board of Directors shall strictly conform to the criteria and procedures or regulations set by SET whereby the Audit Committee shall provide information about the necessity and appropriateness of such transaction.

The Board of Directors has formulated measures and approval procedure of connected transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries or persons who may have conflict of interest. The persons who may have direct or indirect conflict of interest shall not be allowed to make decision on the matter. The Audit Committee is required to participate in the consideration and provide opinions on the necessity and reasonableness of the items proposed for the best benefits of the Company. The connected transactions are also required to be disclosed in the Notes to the Financial Statements prepared by using the generally accepted accounting principles published in the Annual Report.

5.5 Business ethics

The Board of Directors has prepared the Management and Employees' Code of Conduct for the Company's Management and employees to use as guideline in performing their duties and to strictly and consistently implement in terms of business operations, equitably with fair treatment towards stakeholders, including the matters related to conflict of interest, information confidentiality and possible fraudulent use of information, bribes, and gifts, including the anti-corruption. In this regard of the Code of Conduct, the Board of Directors assigned the Internal Audit Department to monitor and audit the implementation.

The Board of Directors itself intends to monitor and ensure that the Company's business operation, directors' ability to perform their duties, the Management's operation, and employees' work are within ethical framework in addition to the Company's regulations and related laws.

The Board of Directors has also formulated a policy requiring directors, executives and employees who are involved with inside information to avoid or not trade the Company's shares 1 month before the significant information, such as financial information which may affect the Company's share prices, is disclosed to the public.

5.6 Power balance of non-executive directors

The structure of the Company's Board of Directors comprises the Chairman who is an independent director and non-executive director, 4 independent directors, 3 non-executive directors and 4 executive directors, totaling 11 persons. The balance of power by non-executive directors is 64% which is over half the Board of Directors.

5.7 Integration or segregation of positions for managerial balance of power

The Board of Directors clearly divides scopes of roles and responsibilities among the Board of Directors, Executive Committee, Audit Committee, Nomination Committee, Remuneration Committee and Risk Management Committee, as well as the Chief Executive Officer with a clear stipulation that the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall not be the same person as the Chairman of the Executive Committee or Chief Executive Officer and shall not have any relations with the Management, in order to prevent any executive to have unlimited power, and the managerial balance can be checked.

5.8 Committees

The Board of Directors appointed committees to assist it in monitoring and controlling the operations, as well as screening the assigned tasks. Roles, authorities, duties and responsibilities are clearly set. At present, there are 4 committees, each with different roles and scopes of responsibility, as specified in the Annual Report under Management Structure.

5.9 Roles and responsibilities of the Board of Directors

In the past year, the Board of Directors reviewed and approved significant operational matters and directed the Management to efficiently implement the policies and plans, including to effectively managing the budget.

Further to the Board of Directors having stipulated and approved the written good corporate governance policy, a review is to be made at least once a year.

The Board of Directors provided and distributed the Code of Conduct in writing to the new directors, executives and employees; and reviewed other ethics for the existing directors, executives and employees to understand ethical standards applied to its business operation. The Board of Directors assigned the Internal Audit Department to closely monitor the execution of such Code of Conduct.

The Board of Directors, having carefully studied and considered conflict of interest and connected transactions which may cause conflict of interest to the Company taking into account the shareholders' best benefits, found none of such items.

The Board of Directors provided a financial statement control and regulations implementation. The Internal Audit Department independently performed its duty in monitoring the implementation of these regulations as well as the control measures. It is at least once a year to review such control.

5.10 The Board of Directors' meeting

The Board of Directors convened at least 4 times a year and arranged the meeting in accordance with the Company's rules, the Public Limited Company Act B.E. 2535, and SET's regulations. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, in the capacity of the meeting chairman, would promote prudence in any consideration; provide sufficient time for the Management to present significant information and for directors to discuss the matter. Meeting minutes for every meeting was made for future reference and checking. It is the duty of the Board members to attend every meeting, except for a certain unavoidable case.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the beginning of the year 2018, the Company Secretary prepared meeting agenda and schedule for whole year for the Board of Directors to be able to schedule their time for the meetings.

In considering the number of meetings, the Board of Directors considered the duty and responsibility of the Board of Directors. The Company Secretary shall prepare the whole year meeting agenda and matters to be considered in each meeting in order to provide sufficient detailed information for the Board of Directors. For example, in the March meeting, the Board of Directors shall approve the annual financial statements, and schedule the annual general shareholders' meeting as well as set the date of the closing of the Company's registration book to suspend the share transfer, while the meetings in May, August and December are scheduled for reviewing and approving financial statements for the first, second and third quarters, then the December meeting is organized to consider budget for the following year.

In each meeting, the Company Secretary provided the agenda and related information and distributed them to the directors as soon as possible prior to the meeting.

The meetings were strictly held in compliance with the Company's rules and regulations, and the Public Limited Company Act B.E. 2535. The directors were given opportunity to discuss carefully the important problems. The Company Secretary and legal advisors attended the meeting and prepared the recording, so as for the minutes of the meeting, which included also the directors' questions and recommendation in the meeting for future reference and cross-checking.

In each meeting, the Chairman of the Board of Directors would conduct the meeting to last for 1-2 hours, which was sufficient for the Management to present the matters for consideration and for the directors to carefully and equally discuss the important issues. The Chairman of the Board of Directors encouraged the attending directors to use their best consideration. The Chairman also asked whether there was any question or other opinion on each issue of the agenda in every meeting.

5.11 Self-Assessment of the Board of Directors

For year 2018, the Company Secretary has prepared the "CG Self-Assessment for year 2018", and submitted to individual directors for considering his/her achievement and for resolving problems individually, as well as for the work efficiency improvement.

5.12 Remuneration for directors and executives

In 2018, The Nomination and Remuneration Committee resolved, in accordance with the scope of duty and responsibility assigned and at the same range as that offered to directors in listed companies of similar size and in the same industry, and also the Company's performance, business environment and economy as a whole, to propose to the Board of Directors and to the Shareholders in the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting to approve the total amount of the Directors' remuneration 2018 same as rates 2016 year.

5.13 Directors and executives development

The Board of Directors encouraged and provided the training courses to develop and educate the Company's directors and members of committees so as for the continuous improvement in performing their tasks.

The Company Secretary prepared Directors' guidebook with criteria on information disclosure, profile, shareholdings, changes in shareholding of directors, etc. and distributed to new directors. The secretary shall also invite new directors to visit the Company's plant to introduce to them the hot rolled coil business as well as the Company's business operations.

The Board of Directors has stipulated that the Chief Executive Officer and Presidents prepare a regular report for the Board of Directors to update on the development and succession plans in case they could not perform their duties.

The Board of Directors, in parallel to the succession plan, implemented the executive development plan by assigning the Chief Executive Officer to report progress of executive development plan undertaken during the year.
